

THEIR JOB TO FIND FOOD SOURCES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—To act as an economic commission to determine what raw materials the country will have to furnish the war stricken countries of Europe, Bernard M. Baruch resigned as head of the war industries board and Henry P. Davison, chairman of the war, control of the American Red Cross, are soon to proceed overseas, it was announced at the White House executive offices today.

The first will be undertaken at the end of the month by the President, who conferred with Barnard and Davidson in this connection, before he sailed for abroad. The announcement was authorized by wireless from the George Washington, on which the President is now en route to Paris.

The appointment of this commission at the present time was regarded here as significant of the President's desire to have normal conditions restored abroad at the earliest possible moment, particularly in view of the spreading bolshevik movement in many quarters. It was stated that the President, from the very beginning, has maintained the attitude that machinery capable of restoring normal conditions should be set in motion without waiting for actual peace to be concluded.

It is known that the amount of raw materials America must supply in the rebuilding of Belgium and the devastated portions of France will be enormous. But up to the present time only a general conception of the varieties and the quantities have been obtained and Baruch and Davison will be charged with securing this data and later probably supervising a plan by which they may be shipped without interfering to any marked degree with America's own building program.

Federation Board Called to Conference

A conference of the executive board of Alameda district, California Federation of Women's Clubs and department chairmen is called by the president, Mrs. Katherine Smith, for Saturday morning, December 14, at 10 o'clock in Ebel clubhouse. Preliminary plans will be made for the annual convention which will take place in Feb-

The district convention at which the election of a new corps of officers will be elected to serve for a term of two years, will be held, in Martinez, at the invitation of the women's clubs of that city. Mrs. Smith has held the executive office during the past two years and has represented Contra Costa county. The new president will probably be named from either San Joaquin or Alameda counties.

FREIGHT RATE JUMP WILL BE FOUGHT

The United States Railroad Administration proposes to raise freight rates more than 300 per cent, and Oakland business men are planning concerted protest and campaign of opposition.

L. R. Bishop, traffic manager of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, has made a detailed study of the effect on business by the proposed rate increase and has sent letters to all shippers in the Oakland industrial district calling upon them to enter their individual protests. At the same time, Traffic Manager Bishop's investigations were forwarded to the State Railroad Commission, which is acting for the shipping interests of the entire State. Bishop's survey includes the following points:

BLUE BIRD BUREAU OF THE TRIBUNE

They are two old people, this man and his wife, and they have weathered life's storm together. But now in these winter months they are cold. The bright memories they have of bygone days will not keep the chill from their bones and they want a couple of warm bath robes. A son has furnished them with robes, but they need more. They need these warm bath robes in the mornings and evenings for, as Blue Bird said before, they are old and alone, and that is bad enough without being cold.

Blue Bird also wonders if a Christmas dinner wouldn't help.

A boy of 14 wants to help his mother and sister and can get work to do after school hours. He has a bicycle. If you know of a boy who doesn't use his any more, it would be giving a much-needed boost to a youngster who "wants to help."

It is only thirteen days until Christmas. The letters to Blue Bird and Santa Claus are coming in every day and Good Fellows are needed—ever so many of them.

There was a Good Fellow visiting the Blue Bird today of the great age of 8. What is more, he paid a similar call last year, and then he was only 5. Last time he brought in some of his own toys to give to the unfortunate children who have none, but this year he

With her little daughter, Betty, two years old, lying seriously ill with influenza, the funeral of Mrs. Oswald G. Lawton, formerly of Oakland, Mass., well-known in Eastbay society circles, who died a victim of the same malady, was held this morning from the Lawton residence, 3925 Claremont avenue, Berkeley.

Mrs. Lawton's husband is recovering from an attack of the same disease which took his wife from him. Lawton was first stricken with influenza, his wife and daughter becoming ill shortly after.

As Claudia Masse, Mrs. Lawton was a prominent member of the 1914 class at the University of California, of which her husband was also a member. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Masse of Claremont court, and a member of an old Virginia family which came to Berkeley several years ago to reside. Mrs. Lawton was a member of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

A brother, Dr. Andrew Masse, is at present in the Orient, while two others, James Victor and Charles Masse, are at present in Mississippi, where their mother is visiting them.

URGES CAUTION TO DODGE FLU

The Health Department today reported twenty-eight new cases of influenza for the last twenty-four hours. There were no deaths reported.

Dr. Daniel Crosby, health officer, today said that while there was no evidence of a new outbreak of the epidemic that every individual citizen of Oakland should constitute himself or herself a committee of one to see that no conditions were permitted to exist that would render the spread of the flu possible.

To this end, said Dr. Crosby, "every person suffering from a cold should wear a mask. Every member of a family, in which a case of influenza has been reported, or where some member is ill with what might be influenza, should wear a mask for at least three weeks after the illness becomes evident.

There is nothing in the present situation to cause alarm, but eternal vigilance is the price of safety in the present instance. Don't sneeze in the face of others and persons with coughs should be particularly careful about coughing in public or crowded places.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR
The three days' Christmas bazaar which is being held by the women of St. Bernard's church, Sixty-second avenue and Orin street, will close tonight. The bazaar, which was held in the church hall, formerly the old church building, has proved a decided success, according to those in charge.

FOUR OAKLAND MEN WOUNDED IN BATTLE

Four Oakland men were reported wounded in the big allied offensive against the Huns by the war department in today's casualty list, and one Alameda man killed in action. The Oakland soldiers are John Howard Shone, James A. Merrick and George W. Garretson. Bror H. Akesson, nephew of A. Akesson, an Alameda merchant, was killed in the Argonne sector on October 3. He was a native of Sweden, coming to the United States but a few months before the draft. When he enlisted he resided at Sherman island, near Sacramento. While in training at Camp Lewis he was married to Miss Leonora Say of San Jose.

Shone, who was attached to Company K, 363d Infantry, was wounded on September 30 in the Argonne sector, following the announcement that his brother, Corporal Harry H. Shone, was killed in action on September 21. The men are the sons of Mrs. Phoebe Shone, 56 Echo avenue. A letter arrived on Saturday from Howard Shone, describing his last big battle to his mother and assuring her that he was rapidly recovering from a fractured bone in his leg.

Base Hospital No. 18, Shone was wounded in July, having been trained at Camp Lewis from September 8, 1917.

MERRICK RECOVERING.
James A. Merrick, Company C, 264th Infantry, 91st division, who was wounded in the Argonne sector, is recovering from wounds which he received in the engagement at Meheill on September 30, according to a letter which has been received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Merrick, 572 Sycamore street. Merrick was formerly connected with the Oakland fire department. He was wounded in the Argonne sector, following the announcement that his brother, Corporal Harry H. BOY'S LIFE IS SACRIFICED TO 'UNLOADED' GUN

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—The revolver that little George McCready, aged 9, did not know was loaded, when he and his brother, Benjamin, aged 5, were "playing soldier," was added a new victim to those of the "not loaded" guns that have furnished deaths and a proverbial since firearms were invented. Benjamin is dead today at the family home, 234 New street, shot by his brother.

The two children had found the gun, which both imagined a toy. They "played soldiers" and staged a "battle," and in it George aimed the gun at Benjamin and pulled the trigger.

The two boys were the sons of Evans McCready, a carpenter. The father said that the children had used the gun in play for some time, and that no one thought it was loaded.

Richard W. Pemberton, aged 75, who has lived in California continuously since 1846, died today at his home, 1050 Forty-second street. The funeral services will be held Monday at the Charles H. J. Truman parlors, 1050 Forty-second street.

With his parents, Pemberton came to California when he was two years of age and settled in the central San Joaquin valley district. His father at one time owned thousands of acres of the fertile valley land, part of which was sold to him by the government, now occupied by Hanford and the famous California oil fields.

During the gold rush, Pemberton followed the business of his father of cat-raising and did not become imbued with the mining fever. Pemberton leaves his wife and ten children.

Sixty of 112 Eagle
Boats to Be Made

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The navy department has directed that only sixty out of the 112 Eagle boats ordered from Henry Ford shall be completed, and the affairs committee was informed today.

Until recently the navy had planned to complete the entire Eagle boat program, despite the signing of the armistice.

"I would not like to see any other country make a larger contribution to the league of nations than our own will make," said Chairman Faggett of the house committee.

Padgett strongly expressed belief that Britain will not reduce her naval armament.

Ah Wah Finds
Bed in Flames

Ah Wah, a Chinese employed at the Iroquois restaurant, Eleventh street near Broadway, had his oriental cat greatly disturbed this morning when he returned to his room at 511 Webster street at 1:30 and found his bed enveloped in flame.

Ah Wah promptly attacked the blazing fire, but was unable to extinguish the blaze without the aid of the fire department. When the smoke cleared, Ah Wah reported the fire to the police. The property damage was slight, but Ah Wah's feelings were severely hurt. He is wondering why anyone got into his room as he is the only person carrying a key to the place.

MAJOR MARR SURRENDERS TO W. J. GIRL

Major Kenneth Marr, Oakland ace, may have escaped German bullets in his daring flights over enemy lines, but he has fallen a victim to a more deadly wound than any which the enemy could have inflicted.

News of the daring airman's capitulation to the accurate aim of one Danny Cupid has just reached Oakland. Miss Mercedes Terradillo of Trenton, N. J., who has been doing hospital work in France, is mentioned as the fiancée of the young hero.

In word which has just been received by Mrs. Charles E. Darling, 2711 Piedmont avenue, Berkeley, whose famous Alaskan dogs Marr helped take to France, details of a pretty romance, linking the names of the young hero and the attractive nurse are disclosed. Miss Terradillo, who is a member of a prominent family in Trenton, recently returned from France where she was engaged in hospital work at Chantilly with her sister, Mrs. Elliott Fitch Shepard, who had charge of a convalescent home for American soldiers.

Stricken with a slight illness, Major Marr became a patient at the hospital. There Miss Terradillo took upon herself the duties of his chief nurse, and in the beginning of 1915 was formally announced.

Major Marr has returned to America and is now in southern aviation camp. His career as a flier with Uncle Sam's forces has been a spectacular one. Going first to France in the beginning of 1915 with "Scotty" Allen and the famous Alaskan dogs owned by the Darlings, Marr heard the call of the war and remained in France, where he and other aviators were stationed in the then celebrated sector of Pont-a-Mousson.

Leaving the ambulance unit for that of the aerial combat, Marr joined the French aviation corps and was breveted as a fighting pilot in the Lafayette escadrille. In this group were William Thaw of Philadelphia, Elliott Cowdin of Philadelphia, Roal Lufbery and other famous American fliers. When the United States entered the war the surviving members of the Lafayette Escadrille were asked to join the American forces and received commissions as captains. Marr was put in the first pursuit squadron and put into the field under Major Lufbery, assuming command when the famous ace was killed. Later Eddie Rickenbacker assumed command of the squadron.

LIFE IS ADVENTUROUS.
Typically Alaskan and a resident of Nome for many years, Major Marr's 28 years of life have been filled with romance and adventure, to which the news of his engagement comes a happy climax. The son of a former yarmaster for the Southern Pacific company in the days of Oakland's infancy, Marr heard the call of the North and left when a youth to seek his fortune in Nome.

There he became associated in mining activities and was a close friend of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Darling, owners of extensive interests in the far North, and who selected him to accompany their dogs to France.

Major Marr's fiancée and her sister are known to hundreds of American soldiers and refugees through their ministrations at Chantilly. When the Germans fell back to the Hindenburg line they fled hundreds of refugees and continued their work of mercy until the kaiser capitulated.

Hearing of Lewis
Auto Case Delays

On the request of former District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, who is defending the prisoner, the case of Leslie Lewis, electrician for the school department, accused of driving away after his automobile had collided with another machine, driven by E. H. Hart, during which accident R. H. Ryan, a former employee of the Key Route, was killed, was today postponed until Monday morning. Judge Mortimer Shiltz stated yesterday that he thought the evidence in the preliminary examination was sufficient to hold Lewis to a jury. Hynes today stated that he had other evidence to offer. Prosecution Attorney Fred Donahue declared that in this case he, too, would offer new evidence Monday. If Lewis is released on the present charge a new charge of manslaughter will be preferred, according to Donahue.

KENNETH MARR, local ace, who has "surrendered" to New Jersey girl.

Major Kenneth Marr, Oakland ace, may have escaped German bullets in his daring flights over enemy lines, but he has fallen a victim to a more deadly wound than any which the enemy could have inflicted.

News of the daring airman's capitulation to the accurate aim of one Danny Cupid has just reached Oakland. Miss Mercedes Terradillo of Trenton, N. J., who has been doing hospital work in France, is mentioned as the fiancée of the young hero.

In word which has just been received by Mrs. Charles E. Darling, 2711 Piedmont avenue, Berkeley, whose famous Alaskan dogs Marr helped take to France, details of a pretty romance, linking the names of the young hero and the attractive nurse are disclosed. Miss Terradillo, who is a member of a prominent family in Trenton, recently returned from France where she was engaged in hospital work at Chantilly with her sister, Mrs. Elliott Fitch Shepard, who had charge of a convalescent home for American soldiers.

Stricken with a slight illness, Major Marr became a patient at the hospital. There Miss Terradillo took upon herself the duties of his chief nurse, and in the beginning of 1915 was formally announced.

Major Marr has returned to America and is now in southern aviation camp. His career as a flier with Uncle Sam's forces has been a spectacular one. Going first to France in the beginning of 1915 with "Scotty" Allen and the famous Alaskan dogs owned by the Darlings, Marr heard the call of the war and remained in France, where he and other aviators were stationed in the then celebrated sector of Pont-a-Mousson.

Leaving the ambulance unit for that of the aerial combat, Marr joined the French aviation corps and was breveted as a fighting pilot in the Lafayette escadrille. In this group were William Thaw of Philadelphia, Elliott Cowdin of Philadelphia, Roal Lufbery and other famous American fliers. When the United States entered the war the surviving members of the Lafayette Escadrille were asked to join the American forces and received commissions as captains. Marr was put in the first pursuit squadron and put into the field under Major Lufbery, assuming command when the famous ace was killed. Later Eddie Rickenbacker assumed command of the squadron.

'BRITAIN DAY' CELEBRATED DESPITE RAIN

"Britain Day" was observed in this city today, but was marred to some extent by unfavorable weather conditions. Returned British soldiers and sailors were given a rousing welcome. Several of the sailors manned guns during the great Jutland sea battle.

Owing to quarantine regulations at Port Scott a large body of soldiers that had expected to take part in the parade were unable to be present.

Entertainment for the United States uniformed men will be furnished by the citizens of Oakland this evening.

A club dinner in honor of the British soldiers and sailors will be given at 8 p. m. by the Athenian-Nile Club in the clubrooms, Fourteenth and Franklin street.

Literary exercises will be held at the auditorium beginning at 8 p. m. Talks will be given by Lieutenant J. S. Dagger of the British army and by Judge Jesse J. Dunn. Trench songs will be sung on the platform by British soldiers. Miss Bond will appear in a dancing sketch and dancing in kilts will be featured by Scotch laddies and lassies. At the conclusion of the literary exercises a dance, with band music, will be given in the auditorium.

Invited by Court
to Stay Right Here

Ethel French, who announced to the world when she was arrested recently, that she lived in Oakland and didn't care who knew it, was requested by Police Judge Samuels today to remain here six months longer—under probation. In view of the hospitality extended to her, Ethel French promised the court to avoid intoxicating liquors during that period.

The young woman was arrested because she refused to pay her fare into Oakland on the Oakland & Antioch line. It developed at the hearing today that she had her railroad ticket in her purse during her altercation with trainmen over the fare.

Judge Samuels opined that the fight privilege was worth $10 each. There was nothing extra for being intoxicated.

HANLON'S WILL RECOVER TRIBUNE CHAMPIONSHIP FLAG TOMORROW

Winners of Shipbuilders League to Tackle Crockett Nine at Coast League Lot Up-Country Boys Have Win to Their Credit Over Locals and Hope to Repeat

WHILE Bill Kenworthy, manager of the Hanlon shipyard team, is gazing at the sky and hoping that there will be no more rain, and Tom Cahalan, the Crockett manager, is probably doing likewise at Crockett, there is no doubt of the big game between the Hanlon shipyard team, champions of the Shipbuilders' League, and Crockett being played tomorrow afternoon at the Oakland Coast League Park. That game is the feature of tomorrow's baseball program, although there are a number of others scheduled in connection with the Bay Counties Midwinter League, besides independent games at San Francisco and Pittsburg, that will have quite a bit of interest attached to them.

Tomorrow will be pennant day for the Hanlon team at the Oakland Coast League park, and incidentally the championship of Northern California may be decided. The pennant which the TRIBUNE offered for the winning team in the Shipbuilders' League will be presented, as will a huge silver cup by Ambrose Purrier. It is usually customary for a ball team to live up to form and take a beating on an occasion when they are being honored, but Bill Kenworthy has decided to let Crockett happen to his Hanlon team tomorrow. His shipyard workers must win that game or the pennant will slip to Northern California, will go to the Crockett club.

Tom Cahalan's Sugarites already have one game to their credit, that being annexed last Sunday at Crockett when the Hanlon team defeated them 2-1. In one of the best games played this year, Jack Bromley who hung the Indian sign on the Hanlon after the first inning last Sunday, will back on the shipyard tomorrow and promises to show the local fans some of the stuff that is making him look like a prospect for the major leagues. Jack is working in better form than any pitcher on the coast at the present time and the Hanlons will do well to come out of the game with the most runs. Howard Greig will be the selector of Bill Kenworthy to step in and prevent the championship from being carried to Crockett by the Sugarites.

Tom Cahalan announces that if the weather is clear, the largest delegation of Crockett fans that has ever come to Oakland to witness a diamond tussle will be on hand tomorrow. The fans here are enthusiastic and they expect to fight their team put up last Sunday.

Bob Shand's Column.

Baseball magnates who are talking about cutting the players' salaries and shipping the noble athletes sums of $200 per month and upward are not doing their own game any good. If the owners intend using the pruning shears on the payroll it would seem foolish to let the public in on the matter as the cash customers generally want all they can get of their money. The fans are not going to flock to the ball orchards to witness a flock of cheap losers in action, not if they know the kind of kale the athletes are receiving but the boys and girls will be ready and willing to lay down their hard-earned money for the privilege of seeing players of better than ordinary caliber.

You never hear of theatrical impresarios chattering about the small salaries their stars receive. On the contrary the wise press agent allows the public to believe that the show people receive fabulous sums and the consequence is that Mr. and Mrs. Public flock to the theaters to take a peek at their money. He said to make more real money in one week than the ordinary man makes in a year. It doesn't matter if the star gets only $50 a week, if the press agent can make the people believe that he gets $500 the cash customers are going to report on the job in large any paying numbers.

Baseball Fans Want High-Priced Players

The baseball magnates have not caught onto that angle of the game yet and they will not prosper until they do. For instance, if an infielder boots one the fan will remark to his neighbor, "What can you expect? That guy only costs $200 a month," or something to that effect. And if a pitcher gets a runner all over the lot the fan will yell from the bleachers to "hire a real pitcher," back to the bushes, and more advice along the same lines.

But if the fans and families think they are getting upon high-priced players they will forgive many a bobble. It is human nature and you can't get away from it. The fans know just enough about baseball to whop 'er up when the home team is slugging in runs and they are careful readers of the daily papers and once they get a line in the articles of the hired men, will be all off. A team composed of youngsters could probably stage a better baseball game than a team of high-salaried vets but your average fan does not figure this way. To show the right kind of baseball fans must know that the men he is looking for nick the treasurer for salaries and not wages.

Major Leagues Will Buy Minor Athletes

The major leagues having received permission to operate again can be expected to make a raid on the minors and many young players will be given a chance in the big tent. The American and National leagues have been looking for the draft last fall on account of the war and there isn't a club in either league that has a team of high-salaried players. Many of the youngsters are still in the service of Uncle Sam and they will be in the time to take part in the 1919 pennant race and others may be ready to go.

Then there are a few who desert their clubs in mid-season to work in shipyard work. They are not being against permitting these youngsters to play in the big leagues and the owners have gone on record as being against permitting these youngsters to play in the big leagues. Some of the Comiskey's hired hands did the same thing. They were in the service of Uncle Sam and they were in the service of Uncle Sam and they were in the service of Uncle Sam.

Spier Baum and his All Star team will meet Sammy Bohne's team in the second game of a series at Recreation park in San Francisco. Bohne's team will play Sunday and Baum will pitch himself tomorrow in hopes of evening the series up.

MARRIED LIFE

BRINGSIDE SIDELIGHTS

Promoter Tommy Simpson is still on the hunt for a suitable main event for next Thursday night's show at the auditorium, but in the meantime he has lined up some special events and preliminaries. If Jimmy Duffy's hand is any better than it was last Wednesday the little goat will top the card with Jimmy Dundee, but Jimmy's right mitt was in pretty bad shape when he met Benjamin and he would hardly be able to do himself justice next week.

Steve Dalton and George Shand, who slugged their way through four hurricane rounds to a draw decision this week, have been rematched and there will be no better bout on the card than this contest. It was the best fight ever staged in the Auditorium.

Eddie Mahoney, who topped Harry Brainer, will meet Johnny Conde and there will be fireworks when this pair hook up. Conde has been accused of Mahoney of cold feet and now that Mahoney has consented to meet him Johnny wants to show the world that he is the minister of Dave Symon's classy featherweight.

Battling Viera and Young Marshall have been rematched; Frankie Jones and Sam Curly Smith and George Haney will also entertain. There will be another preliminary and the main event. The show will be staged Tuesday night instead of Wednesday on account of the Auditorium being engaged for another entertainment on the latter evening.

The fight fans are still commenting on the last show at the Auditorium which was remarkable in two ways. In the first place there were no boxing fans in the crowd, every fighter advertised as peeling and despite the fact that every night was a hummer there was not a single knockdown.

George Haney is the latest waterweight boxer to make himself known in this section and is trying to pick an opponent who will be a good one. The scales around here and he was first place where the boys tipping the scales around the 142 mark. Haney is a New Jersey boy and comes here with quite a reputation as a hard hitter. He is champion of the amateur of New Jersey. For enthusiasts.

The song of the hunter lately has been "where have those wild ducks gone?" About the only places where shooting is half way good is where the ponds are baited.

G. Broberg and Gus Nordquist journeyed to Sacramento last Sunday and brought back 43 spring and mallards.

Gay Taylor did not go on his contest at Cypress Tuesday night. He had killed 23 more birds they would have had 24 between them.

The shooting around the rice fields is still of the rifle shooting order, the birds are so high as key over that they are mere specks in the sky.

Gus Taylor did not go on his contemplated duck hunting trip. When he found out that the ducks did not sit around in groups waiting to be shot, he changed his mind. He says he can't figure why they seem to be any different on the marshes than on Lake Merritt.

The shooters who were at Firebaugh last week all had splendid shooting.

Pelsinger Is Walloped by Frank Farren

Harry Started Well But Could Not Maintain Pace Set by Little Sailor.

Harry Pelsinger got away to a fine start last night at Dreamland rink in his bout with Frankie Farren when he took the first round by a wide margin but Farren woke up in the second and handed Harry more than he received in the first, summing a little stronger in the third to take that round easily and faded in the fourth. Referee Toby Irwin declared the winner and Farren outwaded a few tin horns who had wandered off the ring. Everybody was surprised by the result. Farren was a shadow of his former self in the fourth round. Manager Moose Tausig sent Harry out to stop fast and box but he could not overcome the lead established by the sailor.

Eddie Mahoney, local featherweight, gave Charlie Brown a boxing lesson and easily won the decision. Robinson and Steve Dalton slugged their way through four hurricane rounds to a draw decision this week, have been rematched and there will be no better bout on the card than this contest.

It will be necessary for the Moore shipyard soccer team to train from the San Francisco Bethlehem team in the gymnasium at the Eighth and Market streets in San Francisco in order to have the Moore supporters in the field to hold out hope that their team will win the championship of the California Soccer League.

VALLEJO, Dec. 7. — Steve Dalton and Sam Curly Smith boxed a four-round draw at the navy yard basketball arena yesterday afternoon. The boys tried for a knockout in every round as the scrap was arranged to settle the rivalry between the two schools.

Harry Brainer, the pride of the Mare Island marine barracks, won his bout from Terry McGowan in the semi-final of the boxing tournament. The boys were worth seeing as they were full of action and the manager of the fight, who was taken after the fight, was arranging such a high class card.

Small Crowd Sees Clever Stunts in Benefit Show At the Local Auditorium

High School Boy Defeats University Stars in Football Throwing Event

The committee which worked on the indoor athletic carnival staged last evening at the Oakland auditorium for the benefit of the United War Work Fund would like to get hold of the weather man and sentence him to death for being a traitor to his country. When time for the staging of the first event of an interesting program of athletic stunts was at hand, there were hardly more than two hundred spectators in the huge auditorium. By the time the expense of bringing a score or more of marines here from Mare Island and soldiers from the Presidio were extracted from the receipts there could have been hardly enough left to buy the boys a cup of coffee for their efforts.

But in spite of the small attendance, the show went through with their program of stunts and one of those on hand left the auditorium before the show was over. It was an interesting show and the "devil dogs" won their great fight at Chateau Thierry.

The exhibition of bayonet fighting and "weaponless" defense was also interesting. The boys of Mare Island throwing honors, few doubted that the boys would go to the University of California.

But it was not so, as neither Watson nor Spott could come within ten feet of the "devil dogs" long distance throw. The Oakland Technical young man came within ten feet at times of the Auditorium enclosure and the boys threw the ball on a direct line. Waldo Hauser, all old fellow, and Herbert teams in this section, claim they have a better thrower than any other high school athlete in the state. He plays for the Oakland Technical.

The many old fellows in the crowd made little difference to Marin Plesina, a local boy, who was the best fellow on the field. He was the best fellow on the field. He was the best fellow on the field. He was the best fellow on the field.

Fruitvale Lot Will Be Scene Of Good Game

In the class A division of the Bay Counties Midwinter league there will be some close games with the feature event being staged at Fruitvale Recreation park. The Oakland Commission Merchants and Crystal Laundry teams are slated to play at Fruitvale, which means the fans will have the opportunity of seeing Babe Hollis in a pitching battle with Charley Prulett, the veteran who is the surprise of the season. Prulett is pitching as well as any of the other hurlers in the league, and it will make the Babe Hollis of old to beat Charley.

The C. L. Best Tractors will meet the Timekeepers of the San Francisco league in the last game of the season. The Timekeepers started off the league last Sunday by losing a 2 to 1 argument to Prulett. The C. L. Best Tractors will pitch for the Tractors, with Bill doing the honors for the Timekeepers.

At Lincoln park, Alameda, the Hal-Diddler team will try to regain its hold on first place, at the expense of the Timekeepers. The C. L. Best Tractors stepped to the front by beating the Hal-Diddlers and now the latter club is in hopes of the Timekeepers slipping the lead. A surprise package at San Leandro and they themselves trimming the Grays. Prulett will be the selector of Bill Kenworthy to step in and prevent the championship from being carried to Crockett by the Sugarites.

Tom Cahalan announces that if the weather is clear, the largest delegation of Crockett fans that has ever come to Oakland to witness a diamond tussle will be on hand tomorrow. The fans here are enthusiastic and they expect to fight their team put up last Sunday.

BRINGSIDE SIDELIGHTS

Promoter Tommy Simpson is still on the hunt for a suitable main event for next Thursday night's show at the auditorium, but in the meantime he has lined up some special events and preliminaries. If Jimmy Duffy's hand is any better than it was last Wednesday the little goat will top the card with Jimmy Dundee, but Jimmy's right mitt was in pretty bad shape when he met Benjamin and he would hardly be able to do himself justice next week.

Steve Dalton and George Shand, who slugged their way through four hurricane rounds to a draw decision this week, have been rematched and there will be no better bout on the card than this contest. It was the best fight ever staged in the Auditorium.

Eddie Mahoney, who topped Harry Brainer, will meet Johnny Conde and there will be fireworks when this pair hook up. Conde has been accused of Mahoney of cold feet and now that Mahoney has consented to meet him Johnny wants to show the world that he is the minister of Dave Symon's classy featherweight.

Battling Viera and Young Marshall have been rematched; Frankie Jones and Sam Curly Smith and George Haney will also entertain. There will be another preliminary and the main event. The show will be staged Tuesday night instead of Wednesday on account of the Auditorium being engaged for another entertainment on the latter evening.

The fight fans are still commenting on the last show at the Auditorium which was remarkable in two ways. In the first place there were no boxing fans in the crowd, every fighter advertised as peeling and despite the fact that every night was a hummer there was not a single knockdown.

George Haney is the latest waterweight boxer to make himself known in this section and is trying to pick an opponent who will be a good one. The scales around here and he was first place where the boys tipping the scales around the 142 mark. Haney is a New Jersey boy and comes here with quite a reputation as a hard hitter. He is champion of the amateur of New Jersey. For enthusiasts.

The song of the hunter lately has been "where have those wild ducks gone?" About the only places where shooting is half way good is where the ponds are baited.

G. Broberg and Gus Nordquist journeyed to Sacramento last Sunday and brought back 43 spring and mallards.

Gay Taylor did not go on his contest at Cypress Tuesday night. He had killed 23 more birds they would have had 24 between them.

The shooting around the rice fields is still of the rifle shooting order, the birds are so high as key over that they are mere specks in the sky.

Gus Taylor did not go on his contemplated duck hunting trip. When he found out that the ducks did not sit around in groups waiting to be shot, he changed his mind. He says he can't figure why they seem to be any different on the marshes than on Lake Merritt.

The shooters who were at Firebaugh last week all had splendid shooting.

Basketball League of Six Teams Will Be Formed at Y.

Within the next week, basketball will be the chief sport at the Oakland Y. M. C. A. According to an announcement made by the Y. M. C. A. secretary, the Y. M. C. A. will have a basketball tournament. Some time next week a six team league will be formed from the members of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. will have a basketball tournament.

THREATS OF GIRL TO LEAP HALTS POLICE

Fighting desperately to escape from police captors, Dora Mayberry, a 17-year-old Chico girl, broke loose from Police Officer Grant Hicks at the California Girls' Training Home in Alameda last night, fled to the fire escape and made her way to the roof of the building, four stories high. As the police officer reached the top of the fire escape the girl cried frantically.

"Don't you come up here, I will not be taken back into the home. I will jump from the roof and kill myself if you come any farther."

Parleying with the girl, Hicks held his place till a favorable opportunity for a quick rush and a successful seizure and the young woman was again captured. She was turned

The Mayberry girl and Eugenia Glass of San Francisco escaped the week from the home and were captured in Oakland night before last when the heavy rain drove them together into a Seventh street railroad waiting room. They were brought to Alameda and last night. Detectives George H. Brown and Police Officer Grant Hicks undertook to deliver the two girls to the home.

Dora Mayberry is 17 years of age and was a Chico high school student. It is reported her parents turned her over to the home when it was learned that she planned to elope with a Chico man.

Grant is at liberty on bonds of $10,000. Loughery's bonds are $5000. The matter will not be presented to the federal grand jury until the completion of the examiner's investigation.
